

THREE IN FOUR WESTERN AUSTRALIANS AGREE THE GOVERNMENT NEEDS TO INVEST IN MENTAL HEALTH COMMUNITY SUPPORT PROGRAMS THAT KEEP PEOPLE WELL IN THEIR OWN HOMES.

85%

OF VOTERS WANT THE MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES TO INCREASE INVESTMENT IN MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAMS TO REDUCE ED AND AMBULANCE PRESSURE

83%

OF PEOPLE WANT ALTERNATIVES TO HOSPITAL FOR MENTAL HEALTH DISTRESS

77%

BELIEVE THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC NEGATIVELY IMPACTED PEOPLE'S MENTAL HEALTH

MAJORITY OF PEOPLE WHO AGREE ARE:

Females - around 80%

Young Families - more than 81%

Living in Inner City (81%) or Western Suburbs (91%)

POLLING RESULTS

8 IN 10

would support a political party that increased investments in a number of mental health support programs and initiatives.

784

survey participants

